

CPR/FIRST AID

The contestant will demonstrate their ability to provide CPR and first aid treatment to a victim. The techniques employed should reflect the standards set by the American Red Cross. There will be a written examination following the demonstration of skills. The contestant who successfully completes the demonstration and written examination will be rewarded in the competition.